B. J. JOHNSON HAS A DAY.

Yesterday was a large afternoon for B. J. Johnson and "Counselor" Bill Bryan. They won two races and were beaten only a head for the two year old event.

Little Music, Johnson's candidate for the initial event was backed from 30 to 1 down to 10 to 1 and won off by himself.

The track was dry and fast. A crowd of 3,500 was out and the betting extremely lively. The racing itself was far above the average.

A jumping race of ten furlongs was the afternoon's feature, and out of it came the prettiest finish seen at the track. Buckmore and Breck's pair, Repeater and Templemore, were equal favorites at even money and the race was strictly between the trio. Buckmore made mistakes at the first three fences and going down the back stretch seemed hopelessly beaten, but got to his horses and beat Repeater a nose in a ding-dong finish.

Morea, another Morello youngster, won the colt race by a neck from Jay Bird, and Senator Morrill had to be hard pushed to beat Doctor G. Tern, long overdue, won her race like a lady.

Jockey T. McHugh arrived from San Francisco and will ride this season for Bert Hubbard. McHugh is a useful addition to the riding talent.
